श्री चतुरानन मिश्र : (बिहार) : मैडम, इसके बारे में मेरा जरा प्वाइंट आफ् आर्डर है।

उपसभापति : उनको कुछ इसमें आपत्ति है।

श्री चतुरानन मिश्र : हमारा एतराज यही है कि बार-बार ऐसा आता है कि जो हमने जवाब दिया है और जिसको हम फिर कोरेक्ट करते हैं, यह बार-बार जो हो रहा है इस पर आपको ज्यादा ध्यान देना चाहिए, क्योंकि अब ऐसा अगर मंत्री लोग करेंगे तो यूनिवर्सिटीज में, स्कूल्ज में लड़के भी कहेंगे कि हम अपने जवाब को फिर कोरेक्ट करेंगे। इसलिए इस पर आप जरा सोचने का कुछ प्रयास कीजिए।

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: Madam, may I just clarify? The correction to the statement which was made in the House is simply that originally the figure was given as a certain number of cases which had taken more than six months. The information had to be collected from all over the country. When we got the total information...

SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA: This is not a one-day affair.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let us hear her.

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: The figure given that day was, in fact, more, but the actual cases were ony 22. I have corrected it and brought it down to 22. It is not as much as we had stated then.

उपसभापति : अभी क्लीयर हो गया।

SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA (Karnataka): Madam my objection is different. This is an answer given in the August session. In between there was a session in December. If there are any corrections, they should come in the next session, not whenever they like. Actually when there was a session, if an infomation was wrongly given to the House, the Department should be alert and they should come immediately, at the next opportunity, to correct it. They can't sleep over it and come whenever they like. So, the correction to the answer given in August could have come in December. I think the Government will at least take note of these things. They should not sleep over them. The Department should come out. Having given a wrong information they should be alert and they should correct it at the next earliest opportunity and not whenever they like.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The Minister will take note of it, I think.

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: Madam. I have taken note of it.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Next time it won't happen—she will see to it. I hope she doesn't ever have such an occasion.

SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA: The Department should have been alert.

...(Interruptions)..'.

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: I can come only when the exact figures come to me. The information had to be collected from all over the country.
